Reclaiming Our Narrative | Redefining Our Future

OCTOBER 23, 2021 | 5:30 PM PT • 8:30 PM ET

1875 K Street, NW, Suite 400,
Washington, DC 20006 • 202.660.0900

WELCOME

Welcome to the Council of Korean Americans 10th Anniversary Gala!

Thank you for gathering with us to celebrate the Korean American community and honor our heroes during this time of significant change in the United States. Our theme this year, Reclaiming Our Narrative, Redefining Our Future, recognizes how Korean Americans have shown courage, initiative, and innovation to amplify the voice and advance the visibility of our community nationally.

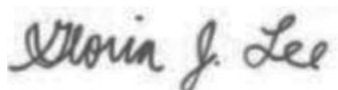

Tonight's honorees are a great inspiration to us all. They have applied their substantial talents to promote humanity and understanding across cultures. We are thrilled to be honoring six outstanding individuals this year: John Suh (Former CEO of LegalZoom & Entrepreneur) with the Empower Award; Justin Chon (Actor, Screenwriter & Director) with the Trailblazer Award, Eric Nam (Singer & Songwriter) with the Embrace Unity Award, Chloe Kim (Olympic Gold Medalist & Snowboarder) with the Inspire Award, and Daniel Dae Kim (Hollywood Actor) with the Voice and Leadership Award.

This evening's program would not be possible without the generous support, enthusiasm, and leadership of our sponsors, donors, and members. We especially want to recognize our gala sponsors: Cooley LLP, Bank of America, Altos Ventures, Overseas Koreans Foundation, Verizon, Comcast, Rutan & Tucker LLP, Howard Moon, Catalyst, Alexis and Stanley Shin, Larson LLP, Good Neighboring Foundation Inc., David and Christine Lee, Robin-Hwajin, Yoon Kim Foundation, Perry Ha, Truist, Randy and Sue Sim, Covington & Burling LLP, Mary and Bill Kim, Soo K. Venkatesan, LimNexus, Baker Botts LLP, Brian Byun & So Yong Park, Peter and Jihee Huh, Hosea Chang, Inovio, Lucy Nam, Susan Kim, Korean Community Service Center of Greater Washington, Juliet K. Choi, Eric Kim, Dr. Mu Hong & Won Kim, Jeffrey & Mihae Stefani, Marie Oh Huber, Songyee Yoon, Bonnie Oh, Google, Salle Yoo & Jeffrey P. Gray, Korea Times, Thomas Kim, Ken Kim, Michael Yang.

Special thanks to Gimga Group, Hyatt Regency-Tysons Corner Center, and Tiato Kitchen + Garden for their commitment and support for our mission.

While we regret that we cannot all gather in one location this year, this gala is a celebration of our triumphs as a community, boldly enduring the unexpected challenges of a global pandemic and the backlash of hate and violence against our community. For that we thank you for taking the time to join us - virtually or in-person, to celebrate our kinship, recognize our bravery in the midst of challenge, and be empowered to reimagine what we can do as individuals and as a community to make this world a better and safer place for us all.

With warmest regards,

Gloria Lee
Gala Co-Chair

ABOUT CKA

The Council of Korean Americans (CKA) is the leading nonpartisan, national leadership organization for Korean Americans. Our mission is to advance the national voice and influence of the Korean American community through collaboration and leadership development. We aspire to a world in which Korean American leaders serve at the highest levels in society.

CKA achieves its mission and carries out its programming based on four main priorities: 1) amplify the Korean American voice; 2) build communities; 3) celebrate our identity; and 4) develop leaders. Focused on these priorities, our work seeks to highlight and promote the creativity, talent, and cultural richness of the Korean American community throughout the United States. Through our members, our efforts encourage public service, building bridges across boundaries, and advancing the interest of the Korean American community.

Since 2011, the Council of Korean Americans has been building these initiatives and mobilizing a movement. Today, CKA has 280+ members and a global network of partner organizations and supporters working for a better world and the growth of the Korean American network.

We invite you to join us as we lead our community toward a brighter future where our leaders contribute in transformative ways, and our voices are being heard.

MEMBERSHIP

Only by representing the broader Korean American community will CKA be fully equipped to accomplish its mission. With a growing membership, we are strengthening our visibility and influence. The strength of CKA lies in our community, our membership, and our network of supporters. Our members represent diverse sectors and professions, from business, medicine, law, and academia to the arts and entertainment. By joining CKA, our members serve as ambassadors of the organization.

The Council of Korean Americans accepts qualified Korean American individuals to become CKA members based on a formal application process and current members' recommendations. If you are interested in becoming a CKA member, we highly encourage you to reach out to current CKA members you may know, expressing your interest.
